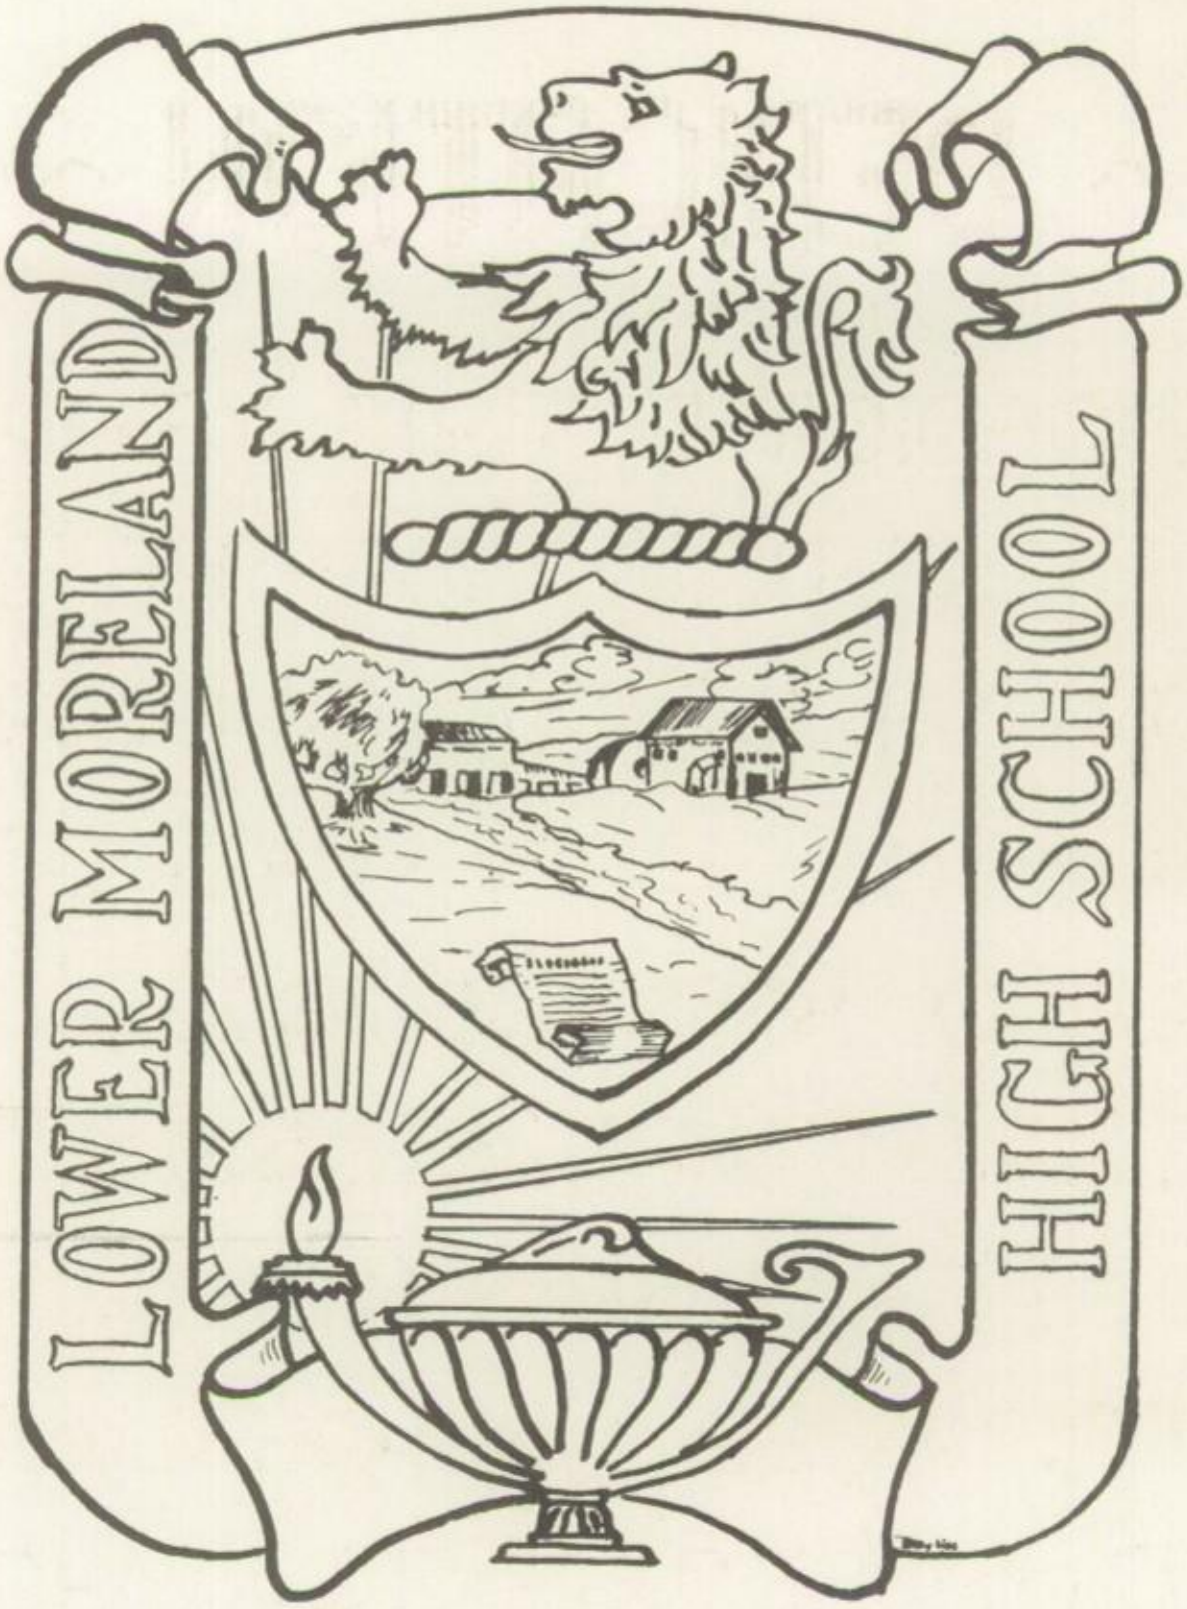
ELMLEO 1955

LOWER MORELAND HIGH SCHOOL

HUNTINGDON VALLEY, PENNSYLVANIA



Legend of the Seal

OF THE LOWER MORELAND SCHOOL DISTRICT

The seal is composed of a shield representing the original township of Moreland. However, in 1917, Moreland Township was divided into Upper and Lower Moreland. This division is indicated on the shield by the Pennypack Creek, an historic stream bordering our community. On the banks of the Pennypack is the grist mill, symbolizing the early industry of this section.

On the lower half of the shield we find the scroll, which characterizes the early means of exchanging thought by the written and printed word, and the growing oak, symbolizing development and strength.

Mounted on the top of the shield is a rampant lion taken from the crest of the Moore family. Nicholas Moore, a member of this family, received from William Penn the original grant of land of Moreland Manor, later to become Moreland Township.

Supporting the shield is a Grecian lamp shedding rays of education and enlightenment. The entire seal is bound by an endless ribbon representing unity of purpose and effort. On this ribbon the identity of the seal is inscribed.

I congratulate the members of the Class of 1955 on your achievements. The contributions you have made will be with us and in our memories for a long time, and in turn the help, training and advice we have given to you, we hope, will be ever a part of your future achievements.

I wish for each of you a successful and happy life in whatever area of activity you choose to work.

Sincerely,

Franklin L. Stone

Supervising Principal

It is always a privilege to extend congratulations to our graduating class. This Class of 1955 is the largest to be graduated in the history of our school; its accomplishments have been many and its co-operation excellent. Because of this, Lower Moreland has been a better place to work and learn during the years that this class has represented a great part of our student body.

So, to the members of this class we say that if we have contributed in some way to improving your opportunity for a happier and more successful future, we have served a real purpose. Our interest in your progress does not cease with graduation.

Our sincere good wishes go with you as you begin another phase of your life.

ACT I

SENIORS

THOMAS WILLIAM ALLMON

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

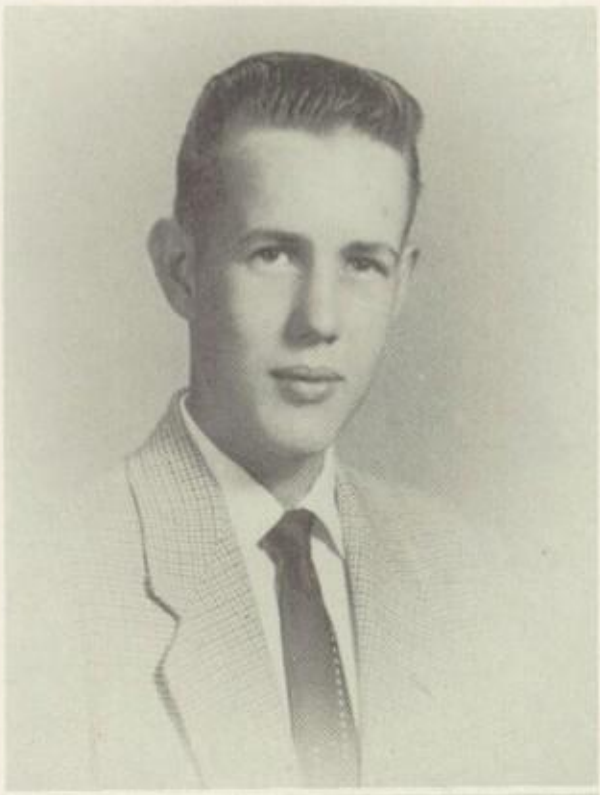
Tommy is a very happy-go-lucky fellow with sports in his past, present, and future. He participated on all teams throughout high school and either played or coached intramurals. Tom was elected co-captain of the football team, and he received the coveted Stahl Trophy for the most valuable player. He extended his interest in sports to clubs, joining the Gym Leadership and Sports Clubs. Tom's another welcome friend who always makes classes lively. In the Chorus and Barber Shop Quartette, Tommy sang low bass. He plans to carry his ability and love of athletics through to college. Happiness and success are most certainly in his future.



CARL SIGFRID ANDERSON

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Andy was one of the organizers of our class and won everyone's respect through his hard work, efficiency, and friendly personality. His enthusiasm and executive ability helped push our magazine drive to and beyond the quota. He participated in the Bux-Mont forums and was a member of the Hunting and Fishing Club. His outside interests include hunting, guns, and cars. Andy's ability, sense of humor, and originality are surely excellent basic ingredients for the success we know he will have.

DOROTHY ANN APEL

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Dot, although quiet, is good-natured with a sincerity we all like. Her eyes as well as her mouth are ever ready to smile and be friendly. She is especially interested in music, dancing, and reading. Dot enjoys her commercial subjects and is a conscientious worker as well as a willing one. Because she is planning a secretarial career, we wish her success in this and in whatever else life brings her way.

ELIZABETH ANNE BALDWIN

COMMERCIAL PHILMONT

Betty, who is small and peppy, has many friends. Her enthusiasm and spirit are evidenced at all times, especially in her dancing. In years to come Betty will surely be remembered as a fine classmate. She gave us her support by participation in Pep Club, Lion's Roar, and Typing Club. Betty is very much interested in her commercial subjects and contributes greatly to all class periods. Secretarial work is her work-to-be, and we see many happy days ahead for her.

PHILIP HOWARD BANKS

GENERAL FEASTERVILLE

Phil's good humor and friendliness are two of his leading characteristics and, fortunately for us, they are in evidence whenever Phil is. "Life is made for fun and frolic" must be Phil's philosophy, for he certainly enjoys himself, and we enjoy life more because of his outlook. Cars, art, and Science Club have claimed Phil's more seious interest. In these three areas Phil is an enthusiastic conversationalist. We wish Phil success in his work beyond high school and know he will add to the many friends he now has.

SYLVIA ELSIE BASS

COMMERCIAL ROCKLEDGE

A beautiful smile, sparkling eyes, and pretty clothes combined with an easy going disposition make up our Syl. She has been active in Knitting, Dramatics, and Sports Clubs, and sang in the Chorus for three years. Syl enjoys sewing, tennis, and roller skating. As with many seniors, her future is undecided, but surely her nice personality and manner will spell success in years to come.

FLORENCE JEAN BELL

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Flossie has been a very enthusiastic, interested member of our class. She belonged to the Tri-Hi-Y, the Pep Club, the Elmleo Staff, and the Chorus, of which she was president. She was also a member of the varsity hockey team for two years and played basketball and speedball intramurals. Her favorite pastimes include music, reading, and art. We wish her the best of everything in the nursing career which she has chosen.

ALICE LILLIAN BELLMEYER

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Just mention hillbilly records or cowboys and that's where you'll find Alice. Hillbilly records are not her only interest, however. Alice was an active member of the Lion's Roar staff, and she was an able representative of Lower Moreland at the Bux-mont Forums. She could always be found in the halls selling pennants, balloons, and various other things for the Pep Club. Alice's plans for the future are indefinite now, but we're sure that whatever she does, she'll have fun.

ANNE MARY BERSIN

COMMERCIAL HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Anne is one of the girls in our class who wisely ignored the present trend and asserted her individuality by keeping her long hair-do. We are glad she did because we have long admired Anne's beautiful black tresses. We have also admired and enjoyed Anne's sense of humor and chuckles which were in evidence daily. Anne, who enjoys dancing and popular recordings, was an active member of the Lion's Roar staff and shared much of the class committee work. We wish Anne good fortune in the years to come.

MEREDITH JEAN BLACK

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Jean is one of the quieter members of our class although she can be heard above the loudest when she is cheering for our hockey team of which she was manager for two years. Jean played basketball and speedball intramurals throughout high school. Outside of sports, she belonged to the Lion's Roar and Elmleo staffs and had the honor to be chosen for the National Honor Society. Jean has been accepted at the University of Michigan where she will prepare for her very promising and interesting future.

BEVERLY JANE BONSALL

COMMERCIAL ROCKLEDGE

Bev was always an active, interested member of our class. She played intramural basketball and J.V. basketball in her junior year, served as an efficient secretary for our class in both junior and senior years, and was on the Lion's Roar staff and the Elmleo literary staff. Her interests are reading, music, dancing, and sewing. Bev's pleasant personality and fun loving nature will carry her far in the business world, but she prefers homemaking as a permanent career. Our sincere wishes for a happy and successful life go to Bev.

RALPH HERBERT BORTMAN

GENERAL HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Ralph was always an able and enthusiastic class worker with lots of school spirit. Whenever there was a job to be done, he was a ready and willing volunteer. Many decoration committees owe their success to him. Ralph is a sports lover and enjoyed being a spectator as well as playing varsity football in his senior year. His love of sports was carried through to clubs where he joined the gym Leadership Club. His chief outside interest is cars. Ralph's undecided future should surely be a happy one.

FLORENCE MILDRED BOWKER

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Flo was a very active member of our class and assumed much responsibility for many important class functions. She enjoys sports, and was a member of the hockey, basketball, and softball teams, as well as all intramurals. She was a valuable member of the Pep Club, Chorus, Elmleo, and the Lion's Roar of which she was editor. She served one year on the Student Council and frequently represented L.M. at the Bux-Mont forums. Her other interests include music, collecting records, dancing and driving. We all wish her the best in her vocation.

PATRICIA JANE BRENNAN

ACADEMIC TREVOSE

It could be the sparkle in Pat's eye, or her interest in and faithfulness to L.M. or a combination of many admirable features that made Pat a good friend and classmate. Pat has been a member of the Pep Club and Lion's Roar for three years. Her hobby is music – piano and accordian – both of which she plays well. Pat's future plans are not definite, but we predict a happy future for a happy girl who contributes so much to the happiness of others.

EDITH ANN BRIGGS

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Ann is one of the more quiet girls who is always dependable and willing to help in whatever way she can. She is enthusaistic about everything she does and worked diligently on her academic subjects. Ann likes sports, and she played varsity basketball and intramurals. Chorus and Tri-Hi-Y made up her other interests. She also collects pictures and enjoys all music. This intelligent young woman will surely have a happy and successful life in later years.

EDWARD BERNARD BROWER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

This athletic, intelligent, and humorous Lower Morelandite is one of our special personalities. Ed is known by all as a good-humored, jolly fellow who has done much by his participation in varsity football (co-captain), baseball, and basketball to contribute to L.M.'s fine record. Because of Ed's ability and winning manner, we predict an especially successful future for one of our favorite classmates.

BARBARA ELLA BROWN

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Barb is one of the most energetic and friendly classmates. We have certainly enjoyed having her as a friend. Barb has an enthusiastic school and class spirit which is evidenced at all times. She is interested in sports, music and commercial subjects. She played on the basketball intramural squad and joined the Pep Club. We are not too sure about Barb's plans for the future, as she has not disclosed them. We are sure, however, that her commercial interests will lead to work in the business world where we all know she will be successful.

WALTER MARTIN BUZBY

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Tall, good-looking, and easy going Buz was a great asset to our class. Sports rank high with Buz and he proved his interest by being a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and varsity football for one year; he also participated in all class sports. He favored gym and dramatic clubs and blended his voice in the Chorus and double quartet. Buz was a conscientious worker but usually found occasion to bring some fun into the picture. We are sure Buz will keep right on winning friends as he did during his high school years.

EDITH LOUISE CAROTHERS

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Edie's gay and infectious laughter made her one of our best liked classmates. She was a member of the varsity hockey and basketball teams for three years, played speedball intramurals, and was one of our spirited cheerleaders for three years. Also, she was a member of the Cheerleading Club, Chorus, and Elmleo Staff. She was elected each year to be a May Day attendant. She enjoys dancing, baking, and keeping scrapbooks. After graduation Edie hopes to do office work. We wish her lots of happiness. She deserves it.

LEROY H. CLARK

ACADEMIC LANGHORNE

Roy is truly a working member of our class. His willingness to help in all school activities was appreciated by all of us. He took an active part in the preparation of our Elmleo by serving on the photography staff. Roy's versatility is proved by this list of special interests: electronics, conservation, photography, and reading. Roy's many friends feel sure that his fine qualities guarantee a good beginning on his road to success.

JAMES RUDOLPH CLARKSON

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Jim is another co-operative member of our class. He is quiet, yet never too quiet for a friendly "Hi" or pleasant conversation. Jim likes auto repairing and scientific experimenting and was an enthusaistic member of the Science Club. Jim has a special talent – tap dancing. He has always been willing to entertain in assemblies, at dances, and at forums. Jim's future is undecided, but we predict a happy one for a talented classmate.

MARY ALICE CLAYTON

COMMERCIAL HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Mary came to us in her sophomore year from Germantown High School and we are, indeed, glad she did. Mary became a member of the chorus, a member of the photography department of the Elmleo staff, and played on the softball team. We shall remember with pleasure this attractive friend and classmate of ours who was always so bright, gay, and full of sparkle – in her walk, her talk, and the turn of her head. Good luck, Mary.

NANCY MARIE CLOSE

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Every member of the senior class knows Nancy as a friend. Her witty comments and infectious laughter will long be remembered as the years pass. Nancy's main interest is music, and we surely appreciate her musical talents. She also enjoys reading and painting. Nancy was on the Lion's Roar staff, a member of the Orchestra, and accompanist for the Chorus. Nancy's friendliness and talents should lead to a successful and varied future.

JUNE SHADE COOPER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

A sparkling smile and a lively personality may well describe June. She has really been an asset to our class. Her willingness, spirit, and ability were shown in her many school activities. She was a class representative of the Student Council for three years, manager of the varsity basketball squad and a team member in intramural basketball. Pep Club, Chorus, and serving as Business Editor of Elmleo were her other major activities. Her top interests are music, sewing, and cooking. Home life appeals to June, and we are positive that her fine qualities and love of life will make her an outstanding homemaker and citizen.

VIRGINIA ANNE CRAMER

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Wherever there is a good time, there is our Ginny. Ginny enjoys sports and has participated in several sports during high school. She joined the Cheerleading Club for three years, was on the Lion's Roar Staff, and also was a member of the Chorus. Ginny's favorite pastimes are swimming, horseback riding, and skating. We hope she will always remain as full of fun and friendliness as she is today. Best of luck in your plans for the future, Ginny.

IRA J. CRIDER

GENERAL OAKFORD

Ray's special interest in cars was evident to anyone in the art room where Ray would be busily sketching models at every opportunity. Ray's other special interest was in the gentler sex 'and there his pleasant smile and friendliness added further to his popularity. Ray isn't forecasting his future, but we prophesy a happy one for him.

MARY MARGARET CROZIER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Mary came to Lower Moreland High School in her junior year, and she has always been an asset to our class. Her attractiveness and pleasing personality have won her many friends. Mary is interested in sports and has played varsity hockey for two years. Her other activities include cheerleading and being a member of the Elmleo staff. Outside of school, Mary's favorite pastimes are sailing and music. Our best wishes go to a girl who well deserves them.

DOROTHY JOAN DISTLER

COMMERCIAL HUNTINGDON VALLEY

Dot is energetic, intelligent, friendly, loyal, willing, and efficient. She has many friends, too, as well as many assets. Dot enjoys sports, and displayed her ability and sportsmanship in intramural basketball. She also wrote for the Lion's Roar for two years. In her free time Dot enjoys reading, dancing, and going to the movies. After graduation, secretarial work lies in her immediate future. We wish the best for this popular senior.

HELEN JANE DIX

COMMERCIAL ROCKLEDGE

Helen is a quiet girl with a happy laugh. She has participated loyally and well in many activities. Helen played on the varsity basketball and hockey teams, helping to make L.M.'s teams more successful. She wrote for the Lion's Roar and joined the Needlework Club. Horseback riding, sewing, and swimming are activities which keep her free time interesting and lively. As a commercial student, Helen has prepared for the world of business. In it, and in all she attempts, we wish the best for Helen.

JAMES PIUS DOUGHERTY

ACADEMIC TREVOSE

"J.D." will be remembered by his many friends for many reasons – his smile and pleasant disposition, his occasional clowning, his serious moments, and his interest in and knowledge of a variety of things. Jimmy's school activities include work on the yearbook staff and dramatics, with pen-pal correspondence on the side. If you are looking for an accurate diagnosis in years to come, locate Jimmy who has chosen medicine as a career.

VERA DOLORES DREEMAN

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Vera's sweet and quiet manner, combined with her several talents, brought her the respect and friendship of all her classmates. She participated in Chorus, was a member of the Pep Club, worked on the art staff of the Elmleo, and participated in all class intramurals. We shall remember especially Vera's many artistic contributions. Her interests center around singing, dancing, driving, and, of course, art. May success and happiness be hers in her future work as a secretary.

NORMA LOU DUNGAN

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Norm's many talents have made her one of our most valued classmates. She made a fine record for herself and her school in a variety of fields. In music she was a violinist in the orchestra and a member of the Chorus. In athletics Norm was a definite asset as a forward on the varsity hockey team. In scholarship, Norm was equally outstanding as a member of the National Honor Society. As if these weren't enough, Norm also was an efficient typist for the Elmleo, a capable Student Council secretary, and member of the Pep Club. Leisure time activities are chiefly music, sewing, and baking. We know this versatile friend of ours will have a happy and successful future.

GEORGE DUNCAN EDWARDS

GENERAL SILES

George is a rather quiet young man whose easygoing manner made everyone like him, including his opponents in the varsity football line-up, even though they didn't always find him gentle. He has many varied interests; they include playing the guitar, automobiles, and fishing. George, not unlike many of us, is unsettled about his future work. We are confident, however, that he will do well in whatever field he may choose.

ROSELEEN MARIE ELEANOR EICHMANN

ACADEMIC BETHAYRES

Posie is one of the more artistic members of our class. Her flair for art has been reflected throughout the school on various posters, in dance decorations, and Elmleo art work. Her other activities include participation in the Lion's Roar and the Pep Club. In her spare time she makes some of her own clothes, in which her fine taste is displayed. She also enjoys reading and drawing for her own pleasure. With Posie's many talents, we are sure that she will be very successful in future years.

NORRIENE LEONA ELLIOTT

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Norriene came to us from Lincoln High School in our sophomore year. Immediately she began joining L.M.'s activities. She made apparent her musical ability by being an active participant in Orchestra and Chorus. Norriene chose Typing Club and joined the Lion's Roar staff. She enjoys music, skating, and dancing. Norriene's zest for fun and enjoyment should lead her to many happy days after graduation.

LOUIS THOMAS ELVIN

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Sports and the great outdoors are Luke's special loves. His interest in hunting and fishing made him a leader in the club of that name. His athletic powers brought him honors in three varsity sports – football, basketball, and baseball. (Remember Luke's competent receiving in those long forward passes?) Among Luke's other talents was that of making friends – and being one. His continued interest in the field of sports and his sociable nature should provide Luke with much future pleasure. We have certainly enjoyed his friendship and wish him well.

ELAINE MARION EMENHEISER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

There are just not words enough to describe Elaine whose talents and interests go from A to Z. She participated on all varsity teams, was captain of hockey, and either played or coached intramurals. Her ability and sportsmanship contributed much to all of the girls' sports. She was a Pep Club member for four years and an Athletic Council member. Elaine has written for the Lion's Roar for four years and was chosen Editor of the Elmleo. Add to this a full academic schedule and andan enthusaistic interest in photography, and you have a glimpse of our Elaine. College is next, and every senior sincerely wishes the best life may bring for Elaine.

WILLIAM ARNOLD FELIX

GENERAL TREVOSE

Bill's friendliness and lively wit have won him many friends. He participated in intramural basketball in his junior year and was a member of the Chorus in both his junior and senior years. He enjoys hunting and fishing when he isn't supporting L.M's activities and was an active member of the Hunting and Fishing Club. Bill's fun-loving nature and cheerful smile should stand him in good stead at all times.

BARBARA JOAN GARBER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Joan was one of our peppy cheerleaders and a very good one, too. She was in the Pep Club for four years and a cheerleader for two. Joan has too much school spirit and energy to stop here, though. She represented L.M. at the Bux-Mont Forum for several years and joined the Chorus in her senior year. Her interests outside of school are reading, sewing, and skating. Joan has her immediate future already planned. It is the nursing profession that will gain a valuable, cheerful, and efficient member. The best of everything to you, Joan.

MARLENE CHRISTINE GENGENBACH

ACADEMIC TREVOSE

Marlene, a versatile member of our class, has made many friends during her high school years at Lower Moreland. She has been an active participant on our varsity teams in hockey and in basketball. Cheerleading is also included in her busy schedule. In her sophomore year Marlene was a commercial student and was elected to the office of secretary. Since then she has changed to the academic course and plans to attend college. We are sure that this ambitious classmate will succeed in whatever field she may choose and will continue to do this thorough conscientious work she has done throughout her school years.

CHARLES FRANCIS GETMAN

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

On the football field and in our class activities we always found Chuck to be a sincere, willing worker. His athletic ability and well-rounded personality have made him one of our more popular class members. His days at L.M. have been filled with activities: Barber Shop Quartette, chorus, football, and Hunting and Fishing Club. Chuck was also photography editor for the Elmleo. Television repairs are of prime interest to him. With all these things in mind we can see nothing but a satisfying, profitable future for Chuck.

ARTHUR EARL GOVER

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Art is surely a lively class member. No class could be termed dull with Art there! His enthusaistic spirit and friendly wit are as much a part of our high school days as class routine. Art has three main interests which occupy him during those spare time hours – sports, hunting, and fishing. He played varsity football and intramural basketball and joined the Hunting and Fishing Club. Art's plans for the future are undecided, but we know he can be successful in almost anything.

BARBARA HARRIS

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Quiet, reserved, and versatile may well describe Barb. Her special extra-curricular activities were her participation in the Fellowship Club and the Chorus. Art, reading, and playing the marimba and piano occupy much of Barb's time when she isn't studying Spanish or trying a new recipe. Barb will enjoy and profit by all that comes her way in the future.

MIRIAM ELIZABETH HATTINGER

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

During Mim's years at L.M. she was a member of the Chorus, Lion's Roar Staff, and important committees, but her special interests center around music. She especially enjoys playing the piano and collecting records. She also tells us that dancing, singing, horseback riding, and roller skating hold a fascination for her. We have enjoyed Mim's friendship and hope for her happiness.

MARY LOU HEILBRUN

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

There is something special about Mary Lou. She has a quality all her own. It could be the sparkle in her eye as she "concocts" one of her original ideas or a witty comment. It could be, too, the special service she has rendered her school and the fine attitude toward all of its activities. Mary Lou is a member of the National Honor Society and was active in varsity basketball and the Typing and Fellowship Clubs. Nothing but a happy future could be ahead for this popular, able, and conscientious classmate.

WILLIAM HENSHAW

GENERAL LANGHORNE

Bill, who joined our ranks in his junior year from Bensalem, has been – and from all indications will continue to be – one of our most dignified and reserved members. Our only regret is that we have not had all of our high school years to know and enjoy Bill. We do know, though, that his pleasant, quiet manner won him many friends. Bill's chief interests seems to be cars, cars, and cars. In his future they will certainly feature in a successful career.

PATRICIA HERBERT

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Pat's friendly smile and infectious laugh have brightened many a blue Monday. Always ready for a good time, Pat has entered into the fun of intramural basketball and volleyball. Her club selection was Tri-Hi-Y. Reading and popular music, with or without dancing, head her list of likes. We are assured of Pat's success in the world of business because we know her ability.

DAPHNE HERMAN

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Dee just came to Lower Moreland for this past year. Prior to that time, Dee was a loyal Cheltenham High School rooter. We have enjoyed having Dee with us and from the time she arrived, she gained many friends. Her cheerful refusal to worry and her witty comments keep things lively in her circle of friends. Among Dee's special interests are cars (driving with enthusiasm and vigor), sports, knitting, and sewing. Her plans for the future have not yet been settled but we wish all good things for her.

BARBARA ANN HERTRICH

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

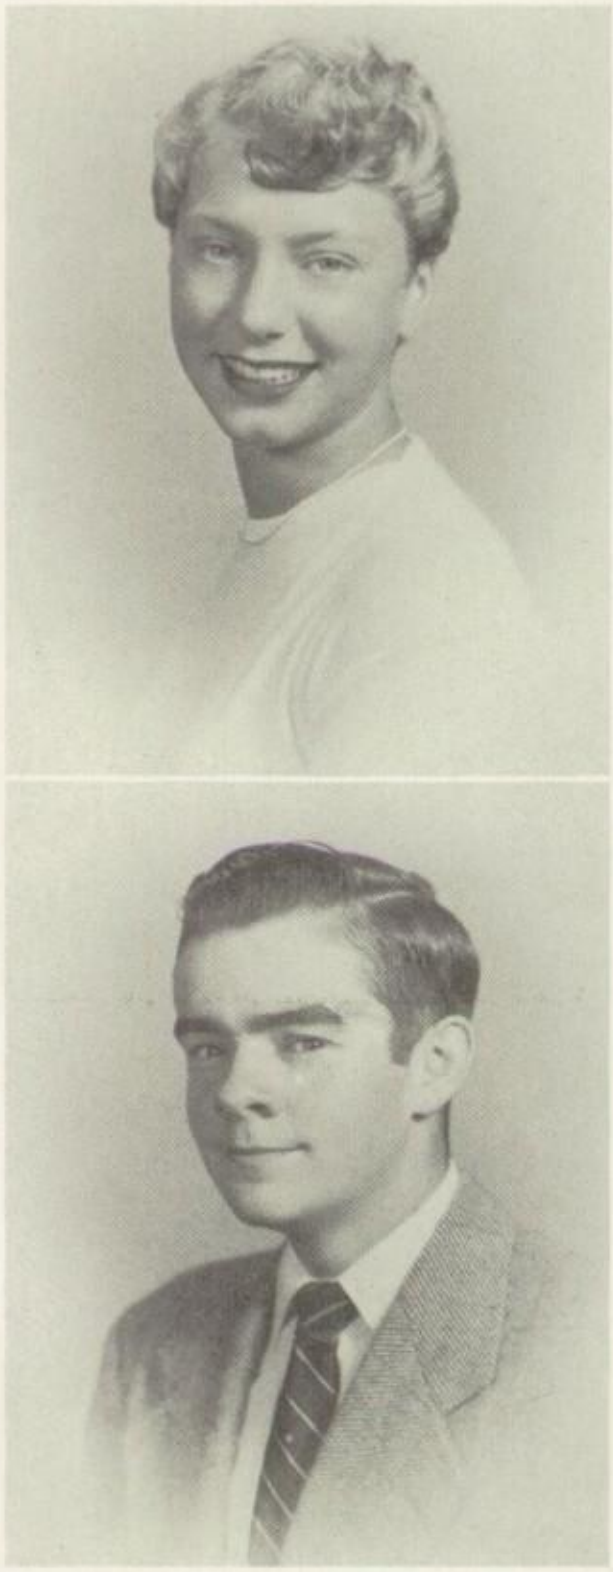
Barbara brought credit to her school and class in many ways, one of the chief ones being her consistently high scholastic standing. Barbara not only appeared regularly on the "A" Honor Roll but was a member of the National Honor Society. We envied and admired her promptness in making up every assignment after a rather extended "vacation." In addition to her scholastic honors, Barbara proved exceptionally capable as literary editor of the Elmleo and participated in the Dramatic Club and Chorus. Outside, leisure-time interests center around music, reading, and experimenting with new recipes. The college that Barbara chooses will be a fortunate one, indeed.



SONNIA HOFMANN

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Sonny constantly proved that good things do come in small packages. Always full of fun and school spirit, Sonny was a valuable member of three varsity teams – hockey, basketball, and softball – as well as the intramurals. She joined the Pep and Knitting Clubs, participated in Chorus, Lion's Roar, and Elmleo, was class treasurer in junior year, and May Day attendant for two years and May Queen in her senior year. Sewing and reading are Sonny's special outside interests. We wish her the best of luck in college and in life.

CHARLES CLAYTON HOLT

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

There are many things that have proved Charlie's interest, efficiency, and leadership. He was class president for several years and vice-president in his senior year, treasurer of Student Council, manager of the basketball team, and member of intramural teams. All through the years, Charlie has "sparked" every important class project with his pep and contagious enthusiasm. He represented L.M. at the Bux-Mont Forum for four years and participated equally well in Chorus, band, and orchestra. Typing, Dramatic, and Hunting and Fishing were his club selections. Railroads and politics are among Charlie's chief interests. We look for great things from this versatile and friendly gentleman.

NANCY VICTORIA IVINS

ACADEMIC FEASTERVILLE

Nance, with the deep blue eyes and lovely blonde hair, has had little trouble winning friends. Her many loyal ones enjoy her sparkling personality and vitality. Some of this vim and vigor has gone into varsity hockey and basketball, some into cheerleading and being captain of the cheerleaders, and some into Lion's Roar work. Of course, there was also some reserve energy for studies about which Nance was conscientious and hard-working. There is no doubt about a bright future for this popular young lady.

JOHN BAIN JANNEY

ACADEMIC BETHAYRES

We've had Jack with us for only one year, but we're certainly glad he joined us from Valley Forge Military Academy. In a short time his pleasant smile and winning personality made him everyone's friend. Jack has two special interests. His Lincoln convertible is his inseparable partner, and he devotes much of his spare time to hunting and fishing. For a fellow with an extra share of admirable traits there surely is a happy and successful future.

NORMA EVELYN KEMNER

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

As years pass none of us shall ever forget Norma's warm and friendly smile. Norma, though quiet, is a good friend to everyone. Her main interests outside of school are singing, sewing, and church work. She was an active member of the chorus, a member of Tri-Hi-Y in her sophomore year, and Dramatics Club in her junior year. Norma plans to be a missionary. We are confident that she will be a good missionary if she retains the qualities we have come to admire and respect.

NANCY JANET KERST

COMMERCIAL FEASTERVILLE

Nancy was a quiet, small, and friendly member of our class. She was a member of the Elmleo business staff and belonged to the Chorus and Pep Club. Nancy served two years on the Student Council and received the honor of being elected to the National Honor Society. She was a junior varsity cheerleader and the capable manager of the softball team. Her hobbies include playing the uke, and collecting and listening to records. Some type of secretarial work can be seen in Nancy's future, and with her pleasantness and thoroughness we're sure she'll be successful.

WALTER WILLIAM KING

ACADEMIC HUNTINGDON VALLEY

For a long time Walt has been recognized as a class leader. His reliability and industry led him to be chosen president of our class in his sophomore year. The Student Council claimed much of his support, ability, and time as he was elected vice-president in his junior year and president in his senior year. Walt is interested in sports and participated in varsity football, baseball, and intramural basketball. Walt's fine characteristics will undoubtedly bring him even more success.

ROBERT JOHN KONZELMAN

ACADEMIC ROCKLEDGE

Bob is one of the efficient managers of our class. He was vice-president of our class in his junior year and a very good one, too. Varsity baseball was also to his credit. His main interests are electronics, record collecting, and figuring out new and better ways to solve math problems. We surely appreciated Bob's aptitude for figures during the Curtis Magazine drive this year. Konz plans to go to New York when he graduates to study electronics, and we're sure that his even disposition and special talents will carry him far in his chosen field.

For several years he enjoyed intramural basketball and leadership in the Fellowship Club. Outside interests are varied and interesting. Photography, tropical fish, and music rate at the top of the list. About his future plans, Bill is rather reserved, as many of us are, but we look for a successful future for this fine classmate.

DAVID JOSEPH McCOOL

Dave came to L.M. in his junior year and his lively personality soon became evident both in and out of class. Happiness in life surely lies ahead for this friend whose cheerfulness and gaiety have contributed to making our days in school more pleasant.

WILLIAM JOSEPH OLAND

GENERAL FEASTERVILLE

Bill's friends have few dull moments, thanks to his jokes and wit. Thanks to his varied interests, Bill, himself, had few dull moments. We wish the best for this big fellow with the generous grin and agreeable manner.

More than baseball is in his picture, for he played varsity football in his senior year, in addition to basketball intramurals. Petey is also interested in the Hunting and Fishing Club of which he has been a loyal member for three years. Allen has no definite plans for the future, but we're sure he'll do well in any career with his ability and personality.

For outside interests he takes after his Dad by having skill in electrical work of all types. Auto repair is high on his list of likes, also. ACT IV

SPORTS

Hockey

Kneeling: Worthington, Giovannangelo, Hofmann, Gengenbach, Captain Emenheiser, Robinson, Bowker, Zill, Flack. Standing: Coach Miss Crowe, Mgr. Black, Wisner, Dungan, Carothers, Dix, Hess, Fink, Crozier, Kirk, Mgr. Holt, Coach Miss Wagner.

Breathing down Hatfield's neck in a close fight to the finish for the '54 championship, the L.M. girls came within one goal of the coveted first place, but they enjoyed a highly successful season by tallying nineteen goals to their opponents' two and ending with six wins, one loss, and one tie – a record the 1954 team will find difficult to match. The 3–0 Palisades game stands out as the best-played game of the season and the one that by coincidence came the day after the squad saw the Irish team play the American hockeyists at Wall Park. The return game with Hatfield with its frustrating 0–0 score was, of course, the most hard fought, exciting, and tense game of the season. Scoring was well distributed among eight team members, six forwards and two halfbacks. Gail Worthington, Sonnie Hofmann, Captain Elaine Emenheiser, Marlene Gengenbach, and Norma Dungan, tallied three goals each; Florence Bowker, two; and Lois Fink and Pat Robinson, one each. To the backs and goalie Marilyn Hess go much credit for holding six games to a zero score and two to just one goal for the opponents.

Boys' Varsity Basketball Team

We have nothing but praise for the 1955 squad that gave Lower Moreland its first Tri-County League Championship in seven years. The team, ably coached by Mr. Martz and guided further by Captain McCool, achieved this enviable record with eighteen wins to their credit. They also reached the final step in P.I.A.A. competition by defeating Clifton Heights and going on to meet North Coventry. This team of 1955 leaves a high goal for future teams.

Miss Wagner

Here you see the girls who hope to make Lower Moreland's first season in league competition a successful one. Last year there was a team, but no league participation. We regret as we do with our late spring sports, that we cannot give you the facts. They are yet to come. However, under Coach Wagner's efficient leadership and with the girls' enthusiasm, we can guarantee that the results of the season will be gratifying to all.

Baseball

It has been our custom for the past few years to present the probably varsity squad for the current season rather than the team of the previous year. Therefore, you see in the squad picture those players who will in all probability represent Lower Moreland on the diamond during the 1955 season. We wish them and their coach a very successful season.

Because last year's team has such a fine record we are also including on this baseball page a score summary of their games so that you can have "for the record" this evidence of their social skill.
